If you like easy access to everything, you will love the location of this one story West Ashley home. From this location, you're less than 10 minutes to historic, downtown Charleston, 526, Costco, amazing dining galore and shopping. This home is situated on an impressively large lot that has a fenced-in backyard with a storage shed and gorgeous, mature, shade providing trees. The hardwood floors and dining area off of the kitchen are wonderful features, but the great room with its cathedral ceiling, full bath and views of the backyard is what really packs in the WOW factor punch. Another spot just around the corner that is the magnificent natural beauty and history found at the Charles Towne Landing, there is just so much to appreciate and experience right in the "back yard" of this home.
